

BRIDGE TO THE DOCTORATE PROGRAM GET YOUR Ph.D. PAID FOR!

The University of Connecticut is looking for applicants for the BRIDGE TO THE DOCTORATE (B2D) FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM who would like to pursue a M.S./Ph.D. in STEM majors. This program* is sponsored by the National Science Foundation Louis Stokes Alliance for Minority Participation (LSAMP).

Pending Funding*

ELIGIBILITY

- Participation in a LSAMP program
- Admission to any UConn graduate program in STEM
- U.S. citizen or permanent resident
- Minimum 3.0 undergraduate GPA

FELLOWSHIP INCLUDES:

- $32,000 annual stipend, full tuition, and health insurance for first two years. Guaranteed support for years 3-5 through research or teaching assistantship
- Individualized faculty mentoring and advising
- Opportunities to do research and intern at companies and national research labs
- Academic support and mentoring community
- Professional development and career preparation

HOW TO APPLY?

Contact Aida Ghiaei, aida.ghiaei@uconn.edu or visit www.b2d.uconn.edu

www.b2d.uconn.edu

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

April 3, 2020